An Exhibit of Artwork by Women in Recovery from Eating Disorders

Wednesday, April 15 • 5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

PHILADELPHIA UNIVERSITY
Kanbar Campus Center
4201 Henry Avenue
Philadelphia, PA 19144

Light refreshments will be served

Artwork, created by young adults and women recovering from eating disorders at The Renfrew Center of Philadelphia, will be on display offering an in-depth look at the complexity and journey from eating disorders to recovery. The Renfrew Center’s art therapist, Sondra Rosenberg, ATR-BC, and an artist will interpret the powerful themes contained with the images. Attendees will also learn how to identify someone who may be struggling with an eating disorder and how to help them get the treatment they need.
