

PHILADELPHIA UNIVERSITY

FACULTY AND PROFESSIONAL STAFF ACCOMPLISHMENTS MAY 2006

I. PUBLICATIONS

John Pierce, School of Science & Health and Chris Pastore, School of Engineering & Textiles
“Direct measurement of punch force during two professional boxing matches,” Pierce, Jr., J.D., Reinbold, K.A., Goldman, R.J., Lyngard, B.C., & Pastore, C.M. (2006), Journal of the Quantitative Analysis of Sports, 2, 1-17.

II. CONFERENCES

Jeff Ashley and Philadelphia University Students, School of Science & Health
“PCBs in Fish Roe,” poster presentation, Annual Mid-Atlantic Sigma XI Conference for Undergraduate Research, Philadelphia, PA, April 2006.

“Can Lifestyle Influence Mercury Levels,” poster presentation, 22nd Annual Meeting of the Society for Environmental Toxicology and Chemistry, West Chester, PA, May 2006.

Steven Bell, Gutman Library

“Blended Librarianship: Enhancing Library Integration into the Teaching and Learning Process,” and “Keeping Up and Keeping Ahead – A Strategic Approach for Library Leaders,” presentations, ACRL/CNI/EDUCAUSE Joint Virtual On-line Conference, “Innovate and Motivate: Next Generation Libraries,” April 20-21, 2006.

Anne Todd Bockarie, Jeff Ashley, John Pierce School of Science & Health and Faye Ross, Learning and Advising Center

“Fostering Science Literacy: Non-science Majors Discover the Science Behind National Public Health Issues, poster presentation, SENCER poster session on Capitol Hill, hosted by Honorable Tammy Baldwin, Washington, DC, April 2006.

Anne Todd Bockarie, School of Science & Health

“Mathematics and Science Partnerships: Helping Partners Understand and Implement Improvements to STEM Education Programs Based on Research and Best Practices,” national review, The National Academy, Washington, DC, May 2006.

David Breiner, School of Architecture

“The American Campus as Bricolage,” session chair, Annual Meeting of the Society of Architectural Historians, Savannah, GA, April 26-30, 2006.

Julie Kimmel, School of Liberal Arts

“Mediating Student Encounters with the Web: A Tale of Three Assignments,” presentation, on-line conference, Making History Online, Annual Meeting of the American Association for History and Computing, The Ohio State University, April 24-28, 2006.

John Pierce, School of Science & Health and Philadelphia University students

“The relationship between ADHD diagnostic criteria and video/computer game playing behavior,” 2) “Procrastination, academic anxiety, academic performance, and self-esteem in undergraduate college students” 3) “Does a correlation exist between road rage and music preference?” 4) “The relationship between left-handedness and birth order in humans” 5) “Third-person effect in relation to media images and body image ideals,” poster presentations, St. Joseph University Sigma Xi Student Research Symposium, Philadelphia, PA, April 2006.

Catherine Piersol, School of Science & Health

“Occupation-Base Practice: Teaching Fundamentals through Participation,” poster presentation and “Home Health Care: The Basics and Beyond,” presentation, American Occupational Therapy Association’s 86th Annual Conference and Expo, April 2006.

Suzanne Singletary, School of Architecture

“Domesticity and Modernity,” presentation, Nineteenth-Century Domesticity Symposium, Columbia University, May 5, 2006.

III. AWARDS/HONORS

Morna Livingston, School of Architecture

Received a fellowship from the American Institute of Yemeni Studies to support a project on “Cisterns in the Highland Landscapes of Yemen.”

Claudia Phillips, School of Architecture

The Landscape Architecture Program received Environmental Protection Agency, Region 3 Schuylkill Action Network Educational Sector Source Water Protection Award for Educational Leadership, May 10, 2006.

Catherine Piersol, School of Science & Health

Received “Service Commendation,” Communication Liaison, Home, & Community Health Special Interest Section, American Occupational Therapy Association, April 2006.

Received “Award of Appreciation,” Occupational Therapy Class of 2006, given in recognition of exceptional commitment to the students’ professional growth and to furthering the mission of the Occupational Therapy Program.

IV. OTHER

Steven Bell, Gutman Library

“The Simplicity – Complexity Conundrum: Challenges for Academic Librarians in the Age of User Experience,” keynote speech, Southwestern Ohio Council for Higher Education program on “Academic Libraries in a Googlelized World,” Dayton, OH, May 3, 2006.

Jamie Grant, Internship Program

“Advising and Counseling International Students in the Job and Internship Search,” Webinar presentation (web-and-conference-call based seminar), Eastern Association of Colleges and Employees, April 2006.

Barbara Lowry, Gutman Library

Editor of the Textile Information Users Council Union List of Serials, 2006 Edition.

Ann Northrup, School of Engineering and Textiles

“Sandy’s Dream,” completed outdoor mural on the topic of ovarian cancer, Main and Levering Streets, Manayunk, Philadelphia, PA.

Josh Owen, School of Design & Media

Guest Critic, Chair Design Studio, University of Pennsylvania Department of Architecture, April 2006.

Suzanne Singletary, School of Architecture

“Americans in Paris 1860-1900,” invited speaker, Symposium in conjunction with exhibition, National Gallery, London, April 7-8, 2006.

“Whistler and France: at the Interior of Modernity,” invited speaker, Middle Atlantic States Symposium, National Gallery, Washington, DC, March 31-April 1, 2006.

“Americans in Paris 1860-1900,” invited participant, Scholars’ Colloquium, National Gallery, London, February 18, 2006.