Mission Statement of the Alumni Association

The Philadelphia University Alumni Association exists to maintain and promote the ideals and mission of the University by encouraging alumni participation in the PhilaU community through alumni events, student engagement and financial support.

Board Member Job Description

Board members are expected to attend three board meetings (two in person and one conference call), and participate in at least one Alumni Board Committee.

During their two-year term of office, they are expected to:

• Make a commitment to university affairs, activities and programs.

• Set a philanthropic example by making a financial commitment that would rank among their philanthropic priorities.

• Serve actively on at least one of the major standing committees of the board (First 5, Career Services, Alumni Scholarship, etc.).

• Encourage participation in alumni events and fundraising efforts.

• Be an informed representative of the University. Make an effort to know what is happening at PhilaU and what the fundraising priorities are.

• Identify potential alumni supporters.

• Attend major alumni functions, such as Homecoming and Reunion Weekend [or indicate other top priorities].

• Refer potential students

• Above all else, be an advocate for Philadelphia University.
