

Why use my Campus Card instead of cash?

Your Philadelphia University Campus Card is much more than your ID! You can now use it to purchase a wide variety of products and services all over campus. You can buy books, supplies and clothing at the University Bookstore. If you can't find change and you want a snack from a vending machine or you need to make photocopies, just use your Campus Card. You can also use it at all campus dining locations, Ted's convenience store, the Mail Room, the Duplicating Center and the Health Services Center.

Keeping money on your Campus Card means that you won't need to carry cash or deal with the hassle of cash transactions while on campus. Using your Campus Card makes any financial transaction you need to perform on campus quick and easy, so take advantage!

How do I use my Campus Card?

All you need to do is deposit funds on your Campus Card. There are four ways to do this:

1. Online at <https://campuscard.PhilaU.edu>
2. Call Student Accounts at 215.951.5988
3. In person at the Bursar's Office during posted hours
4. By mail using the form on the Campus Card brochure

Anyone (e.g., you, Mom, Dad, etc.) can deposit funds on your Campus Card, using cash, check or credit card (the minimum deposit is $20). You may also choose to have any excess financial aid applied toward your Campus Card. Funds are available by 9 a.m. the following day, or immediately if done with a credit card online. Any funds left at the end of the academic year will be applied to your student account, and any resulting credit will be refunded to you. No cash funds may be withdrawn with your Campus Card.
