

Undergraduate Internship Course Advising - Guidelines

For students in the School of Design and Media
(DIGD 493)

* Students can still pursue the Transcript-notation internship course option if they have no free electives remaining for an $90 processing fee. (See Reverse)

Undergraduate Internship Course Advising - Additional Information

For students in the School of Design and Media

For Additional Information on Academic Internships

Students and advisors are both encouraged to review the information listed at:

http://www.philau.edu/career/students/internship_program.html

To be registered for the internship course, students must submit all internship registration paperwork, which can be obtained from Career Services, no later than the last day to add classes for the semester in which they are planning to intern and take the internship course.

Students searching for internships are encouraged to contact Career Services (215-951-2030 or careerservices@philau.edu) to schedule an appointment with Katie Johnson, or stop by internship walk-ins on Tuesdays from 2-4 p.m.

Appeal Process: Students who do not meet one or more of the minimum eligibility requirements for an academic internship listed on the reverse side can submit a written appeal to their faculty internship advisor and/or academic Dean. Students should contact Katie Johnson (johnsonk@philau.edu) to understand the appeal process and further details.

3-credit Internship Course:

- Students must complete a minimum of 144 hours of employment at the internship site during the semester.

6-credit Internship Course:

- Students must complete a minimum of 420 hours of employment at the internship site during the semester.

Transcript-notation course:

- Students must complete a minimum of 144 hours of employment at the internship site during the semester.

(Note: Students can earn up to 6 credits for the internship course)

All academic internships will be reviewed for approval based on the following:

- Opportunity to apply learned classroom skills and/or relevance to career pursuits.
- Opportunity to develop and/or sharpen key professional skills in a professional work environment.
- Mentored or supervised by a professional in the field.
- Involvement in meaningful and challenging projects.
- Exposure to the company's business units and initiatives.