Cleanliness

- Choose one of the following options to best describe the normal state of your room.
 - Extremely clean. Everything is in its proper place and the bed is made.
 - Mostly clean. A few dirty clothes on the floor and the covers are thrown on the bed but not made.
 - More messy than clean but with some sort of method to the madness. Bed is unmade, clothes are scattered.
 - Complete mess. Instead of carpet, you walk on clothes and pizza boxes. The bed, although you can't see it underneath the chaos, is definitely unmade.
- Choose one of the following options to best describe how you feel about your roommate's cleanliness:
 - He/She MUST be a clean person. I expect his/her room to be as clean as my own.
 - It's his/her room, he/she can keep it any way they like as long as there isn't food and stuff that could cause bugs or bad smells that would affect me.
 - Whatever. Messy is where it's at.
 - I don't care if their own room is messy or clean as long as he/she keep the rest of the home clean.

Schedules

- Choose one of the following options to best describe your sleep schedule during the week/weekend:
 - Week: Early to bed, early to rise. I leave the house early in the morning. Weekend: Get to bed around midnight or 1 am and sleep to around 9-10.
 - Week: I get to bed at midnight or so and wake up around 8 or 9 am. Weekend: Get to bed around 2 or 3 am and wake up around 11 or noon.
 - Week: I never know when I'll be asleep or up. Depends on the day. Weekend: My sleep patterns are erratic.
 - I sleep during the day and stay awake at night.

Sleep

- Choose one of the following options to best describe you sleep pattern:
 - I need complete silence/darkness to sleep. Would prefer roommate who would be asleep at the same time so it wouldn't be an issue.
 - I need it to be moderately quiet and dark. Would prefer roommate who is considerate-goes outside to talk on phone, puts headphones on, uses lamp.
 - I can sleep through a hurricane and did once.
 - I probably won't be home most nights anyway because I work at night or spend the night with my gf/bf.

Noise

- Choose one of the following options to best describe your music volume:
 - I usually wear my headphones so no one can hear it but me.
 - I like music pretty loud but I don't have to shout over it to be heard.
 - I've been told several times that I listen to my music too loud, but they had to repeat that several times.
 - I don't listen to music outside of my car so that's not an issue.

Personal Items

- Choose one of the following options to best describe your attitude towards sharing your items:

 - You can use anything of mine even without asking.
 - Borrowing is on an item-by-item basis. Ask first, and I'll decide if I want to share.

Guest

- Choose one of the following options to best describe your attitude towards guests:
 - Guests are bad. Not open to having strangers in my home.
 - During the week, I think guests should leave by midnight. During weekends, guests can stay until 1 am. If the guest is to stay overnight, I would like to be informed in advance.
 - As long as guests are quiet and there aren't like 40 of them, I think it's okay. If a guest is to stay overnight, I'd like to know ahead of time if possible.
