Recipes from home

Your student may miss you more than you know. Here’s one way to help him or her fight off those bouts of homesickness.

Just pick your student’s favorite recipe of any kind, send it to Dining Services either by mail at campus address or email it to us and we will do the rest. Both Ravenhill and Common Thread will prepare and serve your recipe. Just so your student knows who it is from, we will proudly display your name on the menu. Just remember to include your student’s name, as well as your own name.

Think about how much that would mean to your son or daughter!
