Philadelphia University Students Compete in Eco-Challenge to Recycle, Reduce Waste and Save Energy 3 Townhouses . 3 Months. 3 Ways to Save the Earth.

Event: Philadelphia University students living in three on-campus Townhouses are competing in a three-month Eco-Challenge to live more sustainability.

The students are coming up with lots of innovative ways to reduce their carbon footprint by cutting their energy use, reducing waste and recycling more.

Today, Thursday, Oct. 29, students in Townhouses D and H are hosting open houses to highlight the steps they're taking and how well they're doing about half-way through the challenge.

THERE WILL BE EXCELLENT PHOTO OPPORTUNITIES AND STUDENTS WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR INTERVIEWS.

Students are keeping blogs on their progress, and honors biology students are measuring their progress throughout the Eco-Challenge.

When: Thursday, October 29
11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Where: Townhouses D and H
Philadelphia University is located at School House Lane and Henry Avenue in East Falls.
There is a parking lot next to the Townhouses off School House Lane.
