HATS OFF

- Philadelphia University's Women's Soccer Team won the first Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference (CACC) Women's Soccer Tournament Championship after defeating Holy Family University 2-1, Nov. 1, at Drexel University's Vidas Field.
- Fashion Merchandising student Elizabeth Long '08 was recently selected for the 2007 Women Inventing Next (WIN) Fellowship. Long will be recognized for her nomination and receive the Iris Newman Award for outstanding woman-business leader or supporter of women-led businesses during the 2006 WIN Leadership Event, Wednesday, Nov. 15 at the Rittenhouse Hotel in Philadelphia. As a WIN Fellow, Long will participate in several educational, mentorship and networking opportunities.
- School of Architecture adjunct faculty member Pablo Meninato's article, Tipología y Métodos de Diseño, was published in the June 2006 issue of Summa+ magazine, a Buenos Aires, Argentina, based publication. Meninato's article discusses the concept of typology in architecture and its use as a design method and was based on the Design X architecture capstone course he taught in spring 2005. The illustrations accompanying his article featured the students' designs.
