HATS OFF

- Congratulations to Architecture students Ben Motyl '08, Dan Termini '08 and Brent Miller '07 who placed second and received $500 in a national student charrette, which took place last week at the annual meeting of the American Collegiate Schools of Architecture at Loews Hotel in Philadelphia. For the competition, students had 48 hours to design an outdoor theater made primarily from brick that would be constructed on the Ben Franklin Parkway. The charrette included students from institutions across the country, including the University of Pennsylvania, which took first place, and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and the University of Houston, which received honorable mentions.
